COMMENTS ON STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

Sir:

The above-identified patent application was allowed on November 9, 2006. The Notice of Allowability included a Statement of Reasons for Allowance.

While applicant appreciates the allowance of this application, applicant notes that the Statement of Reasons for Allowance states that the pending claims are allowed in view of certain language quoted from Applicants' previous reply, and in view of certain limitations paraphrased from applicants' independent method claim 61.

Applicant would like to clarify for the record that each claim is limited only by its own limitations (including limitations of any claim or claims from which it depends).

Thus, no limitation is to be read into any claim from any other claim. And to the extent that the paraphrased limitations of claim 61 differ from the actual limitations of claim 61, claim 61 and its dependent claims should be limited only by their actual respective limitations, not the paraphrased limitation in the Statement of Reasons for Allowance.

Moreover, to the extent that applicants' claims may be construed in light of arguments made in Applicants' various replies, applicants would like to clarify that all remarks must be taken in context, taking into consideration the claims to which the remarks are directed and any other remarks beyond those quoted by the Examiner in the Statement of Reasons for Allowance.

Respectfully submitted,

/Jeffrey H. Ingerman/
